BURKINA FASO

Bertine Ouaro, Nutrition Director, Ministry of Health

“GRET has greatly contributed to reflections on nutrition policies in Burkina. I would like it to strengthen its support to the private sector in the area of nutrition.”

CAMBODIA

Ek Soan Chan, Secretary of State in charge of water

“GRET’s teams have experience in various countries, which is why we are always glad of their recommendations and proposals of reforms for progress.”

CONGO

“I was the first witness of GRET’s installation and action in Congo. GRET is an authentic system that capacitates local players.”

HAITI

Michele Pierre Louis, Chairperson of Fokal

“Collaboration with GRET made it possible to share methodologies and approaches, and to make actions sustainable by taking the participation of local players into account.”

LAOS

Khampheui Vongsakhampmoua, Managing Director of the Vientiane Water Supply Company

“For the last 10 years, GRET has been contributing to increasing access to water for the population of Laos in small villages and in the capital, Vientiane.”

MADAGASCAR

Mieja Vola Rakotanarivo, Director of Nutri’zaza

“The first word that comes to my mind to characterise GRET’s action is innovation. Working with GRET awakened my curiosity and made me want to continuously move forward.”

MAURITANIA

Mohamed Ould Tourad, Managing Director of Tenmiya

“Working with GRET was my first experience in the association sector. GRET initiated the noble idea of the professional operator for development. This is the basis on which I founded the Tenmiya association.”

MYANMAR

U Hla Min, Agriculture Consultant

“Working with GRET was my first experience with an NGO in 2000. I encountered GRET’s great professional open-mindedness regarding rural development.”

NIGER

Moussa Dan Tanin, Prefect of Mayahi

“For us in Mayahi, GRET is like a mother for her baby. Its actions have led to the start of a decrease in the prevalence of malnutrition.”

DRC

Eric Matand, Director of the VSI Afrique Engineering Firm

“The quality of strengthening of capacities of local production groups and the agro-ecological approaches developed by GRET to support agricultural services cooperatives are a source of strength.”

SENEGAL

Ousmane Sow, Director of the Regional development agency in Senegal

“With GRET, it’s not about providing ready-made solutions, it’s about providing experience capitalised from elsewhere and questioning ourselves about conditions for adapting these experiences.”

VIETNAM

Vu Thi Lai, Director of the Centre for consultation on rural development in Sung Hong

“20 years of collaboration with GRET enabled me to acquire skills in the areas of planning, human resources management, writing project proposals and work methods.”
